John Bapst Athletic Hall of Fame Guidelines

Originated by the John Bapst Quarterback Club, the Athletic Hall of Fame was established and inducted founding members in 1972.

Selection Process:

- Anyone can nominate a graduate or coach to the John Bapst Athletic Hall of Fame. Nominees are accepted on a rolling basis through this form on the website and through The Round Table.
- Members of the Selection Committee are appointed by the Alumni Association and include current and former coaches and faculty, the Athletic Director, and the Development Director.
- The Selection Committee presents a slate of proposed new inductees to the Alumni Association for a vote.
- The Alumni Association votes on the slate, ratifying the final list of inductees.
- New members are inducted at least every five years.

Selection Criteria:

- Nominees must have been an outstanding player or coach or have been associated with the athletic program in an outstanding fashion.
- Athletes must have graduated from John Bapst at least 10 years before proposed induction. Coaches must have completed service at least 5 years before time of proposed induction.
- Nominee must have been outstanding in the sport or sports in which they were affiliated.
- Nominee must have exemplified good sportsmanship during their time at John Bapst and must currently be citizens in good standing.

Selection Timeline:

- Nominations accepted anytime.
- Selection Committee meets to propose a slate of new members.
- The Alumni Association votes on the slate.

Recognition Guidelines:

- Inductees are presented with a commemorative plaque. Their names will be added to the John Bapst Athletic Hall of Fame plaques at the school.
