Dear Parents and Students,

We have two weeks left in this school year. Students have finished their AP exams and are now entering the home stretch toward graduation and summer. This has been a remarkably difficult year, but the students and teachers have hung in there, supported each other, and continued to keep connected and keep working through this crisis. We are still proud of the work they have done and continue to do. In two weeks, we can all take a deep breath, get away from Zoom, and reflect on this extraordinary year (at least for a while, before we gear up for the next one!). Here are few announcements for the holiday weekend.

Schedule: There is no school on Monday, May 25 due to the Memorial Day holiday. Students will have classes on Tuesday (Purple Day), Wednesday (White Day), Thursday (Purple) and Friday (White). The following week is the last week of school. Remember there are no final exams, but regular school days that week.

Graduation: Seniors have signed up for graduation times. If you were unable to sign up, or have questions about graduation, please contact Angela Kearns (akearns@johnbapst.org). She can help you.

Graduation gown pick-up: Seniors will be able to pick up their gowns and other regalia next week. Seniors will have scheduled times to get their things. That schedule will come out early next week.

Grades: The last day of the semester is Friday, June 5. Grades will be finalized the week after that. Teachers will be reviewing each student's grades to insure that they represent a fair picture of what the student earned in the second half of the year.

I hope you and your family and safe and happy this holiday weekend.

Take Care!

Dave
