@ John Bapst Memorial High School

“The unique spirit, individualism, and the communal goal of growth is why I am here at John Bapst.”

— OSCAR, EDDINGTON

WELCOME TO JOHN BAPST

where students are encouraged to be themselves - always. A successful John Bapst student is one who has the motivation and willingness to work hard in pursuit of their passion. You belong here – on your good days and on your bad days – we will guide you through challenges and celebrate your triumphs with you. Our goal is to make school fun and learning meaningful, one student at a time, while helping you build skills that will take you out into the world beyond high school.

ACADEMICS

At John Bapst, there are as many pathways to excellence as there are students and you can choose your own!

DISTINGUISHED GRADUATES PROGRAM

Students do cutting edge research and individualized projects, coupled with great courses. This honors program allows students to shine in areas they are most passionate about. Our Distinguished Graduates have been published in scientific papers, they have discovered new species, and they have even become actual rock stars. If you are ready to pursue your passion and show the world what you can do, you belong here – we have a path for you!

HUMANITIES AND ARTS

The world, both past and present, is open for our students to discover and explore. If you love language, music, art, or theater, you belong here – we have a stage for you!

OUTSTANDING STEM PROGRAM

Our students who are passionate about science, technology, engineering or math (or any combination of them) find that we have superb teachers and opportunities to build, explore, and discover the natural world. John Bapst offers over fifty STEM courses, including robotics, engineering, and research. If you love hard science and labs, you belong here – we have a lab for you!

“I love John Bapst because of the amazing connections I’ve made with all of my teachers.”

— RUBY, BANGOR

“There is a rich culture of excellence that is demonstrated by John Bapst, whether on the field, in the classroom, or in the community. I chose to come to John Bapst to be in a supportive and challenging environment, where I could pursue my interests and goals.”

— ETHAN, HAMPDEN

I feel like I belong at John Bapst because, even though I came not knowing many people, I immediately was inundated with offers of friendship and support.

— ADA, HOLDEN

COURSES

As an independent school, John Bapst is free to focus on the individual learner. One-on-one course scheduling and college counseling are always available. Students find academic expectations that match their level of ability – a varied program of core, honors, and Advanced Placement classes. Along with exciting classroom instruction, our teachers are also available before and after school to work with students individually.
